SELECTION CRITERIA

For selection of Indian Rowing teams, in Senior & Junior (Men & Women) categories to represent India in International Competitions, the following selection criteria will be applied:

STEP 1- Selection of rowers for National Coaching Camps (NCC)

The selection base will be the following National Rowing Championships

1. Senior National Rowing Championships, National Games (2000 meters races only)
2. Junior National Rowing Championships. Khelo India Youth Games.

The Probables for the National Coaching camps will be selected based on the performance at the Nationals and recommended by the Selection Committee.

STEP 2- Selection procedure for final rowing team to represent India

1. Trials at the coaching camp will be held in a cycle of 8 weeks, for rowers attending the coaching camps.
2. Those rowers who do not show improvement over a period of time, will be weeded out.
3. Eight weeks before the date of competition, extensive seat trials will be held to determine the fastest boats & best combinations on the water.
4. Depending on the target timings achieved by different boats, the Selection Committee will recommend the entries in which India will participate, for best results.
5. After reviewing all the above factors, the Selection Committee will recommend the final crews and boats to represent India in a particular championship.

STEP 3- The final team will be announced by the Selection Committee not earlier than 4 weeks prior to the departure of the teams.

Rowers who have not been selected for the National Coaching Camps of RFI, as outlined above and any rower not attending the said coaching camps, on his/her own accord or not released by his/her employer/guardian, if a minor, will not be permitted to participate in the final trials to choose the Indian Rowing Team and will not be eligible to represent India under any circumstances.

STEP 4- For Multi – Discipline events (Asian Games & the Olympic) the final selection will be announced as per the last date of submission laid down by IOA and the Organizing Committee of the Games.

The method and dates selection will be posted in the website of the Federation.

The above selection criteria, supersedes all previous criteria communicated on the subject.
